

3D – AWAJISHIMA : CUISINE & TRADITIONAL ARTS

A refined three-day journey into the heritage of Awajishima. Once revered as Miketsukuni, this island reveals its rich culture and nature through traditional performing arts, pottery-making, and a lively fish market auction.

Day 1: Sushi & Ningyo Joruri

Savor a refined sushi lunch, then experience Awaji Ningyo Joruri—over 500 years of traditional puppetry—with exclusive backstage access to its enduring craft.

Day 2: Culinary & Ceramic Charm

After a lunch featuring local ingredients, try Koiga pottery, one of Japan's finest ceramics. Create your own piece while experiencing the subtle beauty and refined craftsmanship of this traditional art.

Day 3: Witness a "Seri"

Witness a private fish market auction, then savor a lunch of the day's fresh catch, a perfect finale to Awajishima's culinary traditions.

Hotel New Awaji Villa RAKUEN

Embraced by sea and sky, this serene retreat offers private villas with open-air baths, letting you unwind in sublime comfort.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Koiga Pottery Experience

Experience Koiga pottery with a rare kiln viewing and hands-on creation guided by master artisans, immersing yourself in the serene art of fire and clay.

Local Cuisine & Food Culture

Savor Awajishima's bounty at Kairi with a seasonal course, witness a lively fish auction, and enjoy a lunch of the day's fresh catch.

Other Activities

Awajishima blends culture and nature, from traditional crafts like indigo dyeing to a Zen retreat at Shigeru Ban's Zenbo Seinei.

